Libram

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a ledger or account book. The text is dense and covers most of the page, with some lines crossed out. It appears to be a record of expenses or payments, with various entries and sub-entries. The script is highly stylized and difficult to read in detail, but some words like 'obra', 'mayordomo', and 'gastado' are visible. There are also some numbers and dates scattered throughout the text.
